WSW Announces Transition in Leadership Roles

Salisbury, MD – July 1, 2024 - The Executive Director of Women Supporting Women, Cindy Feist, is retiring after 10 years with the organization.

In the decade she worked at WSW, Cindy wore many hats and filled the roles of Executive Director, Event Coordinator, PR & Marketing Coordinator, and Grant Writer. She will be sorely missed in the office and the rest of the WSW staff wish her a happy retirement. The Board of Directors and the staff also thank Cindy for her immense dedication, true leadership, creative ideas, and vision of success she brought to the organization every day. In her retirement, Cindy says she looks forward to "traveling and spending time with her grandbaby".

Jocelyn Feist, WSW's Mentoring Coordinator, has accepted and filled the position now as the Executive Director of Women Supporting Women. Jocelyn has worked for the organization since 2019, where she has held countless prostheses and wig fittings, facilitated WSW Support Groups, attended educational health conferences, checked in on Survivors, and so much more. The Board of Directors and staff are pleased with this decision and look forward to working under and with the new direction of Jocelyn. When asked what she is excited to bring to WSW as the new Executive Director, she said, "I will continue to advance the mission of WSW through engaging younger men and women through breast cancer awareness along with new and exciting events".
